

JPA ITALIA AT THE CONFERENCE "INNOVATION AT THE SERVICE OF HEALTH - NEW GROWTH OPPORTUNITIES FOR FRENCH AND ITALIAN COMPANIES "

Milan, 15th June 2017

Dr. Cereghini, JPA Italia's CEO, attended the conference organized by Business France and Assolombarda. The aim of the initiative was to introduce the development potential the possible collaborations offered by the health sector in France to Italian investors.

The initiative was marked by presentations on the several incentive programs in France and Italy for innovation in the Health service, and by testimonies of experts, companies and local authorities working successfully on these issues in the two countries.

JPA Italia has long been committed to supporting the internationalization processes of Italian companies to promising markets, including France.
